Bill's Creative Financing seminar is an eye-opener for people that are stuck on FICO scores and down payments. After listening to Bill for two days I called my bank told them to forget about the re-fi (it felt great to tell the bank no before they probably would have told me no) and called the owner of the subject property and suggested collateral substitution. Now I own the other property free and clear and are able to make money with it however I want. Bill's Creative Financing seminar is a MUST sign-up for every investor. Thanks Bill! __ Lenska B
